Next, select the type of plan you want:

Medicare Advantage Plan (Part C)
A Medicare-approved plan from a private company that offers an alternative to Original Medicare (Part A & Part B) for your health and drug coverage. Most plans include prescription drug coverage.

Medicare drug plan (Part D)
A Medicare-approved plan from a private company that covers your prescription drug costs.

Medigap policy
Extra insurance you can buy from a private company to help pay your out-of-pocket costs that Original Medicare doesn't cover. Policies are standardized, and the basic benefits in each are the same. Most policies don't include prescription drug coverage.
